Property outlook for international customers

Property purchases by foreign nationals in Spain, has a significant impact on our market. We will reveal the trends, opportunities, customer profiles, new markets and digital solutions that will help everyone involved to keep on driving the Spanish economy. The event will be hosted by two specialists in the field who will tell us about the new post-COVID perspectives.

The presentation will be lead by Mark Stücklin, a property market expert, and Judit Montoriol, senior economist at CXBK Research. The talk will be in Spanish.

Running time: 45min
